

STATE OF NEW JERSEY EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

problems; and school year, some students will begin their studies with undiagnosed and untreated vision WHEREAS, as children across the State of New Jersey prepare for the start of a new

WHEREAS, vision problems could interfere with a child's education; and potential. For this reason, public awareness about learning-related vision problems enhance their lives; and helpful to ensure that young people receive the prompt vision treatment they need to WHEREAS, all children deserve the opportunity to learn and to achieve their full to help prevent or reduce the impact that untreated vision problems can have on our children's ability to read and learn; recognize the critical role that good vision plays in the learning process and work together parents, educators, school nurses and concerned adults

hereby proclaim: NOW, THEREFORE, I, CHRIS CHRISTIE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do

CHILDREN'S VISION AND LEARNING MONTH AUGUST 2017

in New Jersey.

GIVEN, under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-first day of July in the year two thousand seventeen, the two hundred and forty-second year of the Independence of the United States.

Sin Guleni

RESULUTE GOVERNOR