MEET OUR SPEAKERS

► Derek Cunningham, OD — is Director of Optometry at Dell Laser Consultants, received his undergraduate education from the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Alberta. He then completed his optometric education at the University of Waterloo. He is also a graduate of the Faculty Development Course at Texas Tech University. Dr. Cunningham comes to DLC from Mobile, Alabama, where he was the Center Director of an advanced specialty referral and consultative eye care center. In this capacity, Dr. Cunningham specialized in the treatment and management of ocular disease and peri-surgical eye care. He also administered the optometric referral network and continuing education programs of this practice, which provided vision correction surgery, as well as specialty and surgical care for glaucoma, retina, and strabismus. Before joining his practice in Alabama, Dr. Cunningham was a Faculty Associate and Instructor of Clinical Pathology at the Texas Tech School of Medicine in El Paso, Texas. He was also the resident education supervisor and a member of the School of Medicine accreditation board. In addition to his teaching duties at Texas Tech, Dr. Cunningham also held adjunct professor status at the Inter American University of Puerto Rico and University of Waterloo. Dr. Cunningham's research background includes diabetic retinopathy, neuro-ophthalmology, glaucoma surgery and macular degeneration. Dr. Cunningham is a nationally recognized educator, having provided continuing education lectures to eye doctors throughout the country. He is also a Fellow of the American Academy of Optometry and is board certified by the American Board of Optometry. Dr. Cunningham has a special interest in Sports Vision and Performance, and is the Chair of the American Optometric Association's Sports Vision Section. He has worked with professional and NCAA sports teams, as well as often attending and presenting at the American College of Sports Medicine national meeting. As Director of Optometry at Dell Laser Consultants (DLC), Dr. Cunningham specializes in the evaluation and management of vision correction surgery patients and coordinates Dr. Dell's clinical research studies. He also coordinates and administers the optometric co-management and education programs for DLC.

► Carlo Pelino, OD — is a 1994 graduate of the Pennsylvania College of Optometry. In 1995 Dr. Pelino completed a PCO ocular disease residency at the John F. Kennedy Memorial Hospital in Philadelphia, where he concentrated in retina and neuro-ophthalmic disease. Dr. Pelino is currently a full time Assistant Professor at the Pennsylvania College of Optometry and is director of the optometric retina service at The Eye Institute. He recently completed a one year retinal fellowship emphasizing medical and surgical treatments under the direction of vitreo-retinal surgeons at Crozier-Chester and Riddle Memorial Hospitals in suburban Philadelphia. Dr. Pelino is a fellow in the American Academy of Optometry. He regularly lectures in domestic and international programs.
